The Museum has established its expertise in the collection, preservation, and interpretation of American art beginning in the 20th century and making innovative and outstanding exhibition experiences available to residents and visitors to WNC. The Museum provides vital and otherwise unavailable cultural and educational services to adults and children of all ages including school and adult tours, teacher training, classes and workshops for adults and children, films, book club, artist talks, as well as volunteer and entertainment experiences. Arts-based educational programming is an important focus, and every year the Museum provides visual arts programming to audiences of all ages through a diverse range of Museum programming and activities, including outreach educational programs, group tours for K-12 groups, adults, and families, family days, after-school. The Museum preserves important aspects of our national and regional heritage through strategic collecting and the conscientious stewardship of great works of art.

Pt V, Line 4: In 2004, the Museum began a capital campaign for a major construction, renovation and historic preservation project to create new facilities and secure significant endowment reserves for the long-term sustainability of the facilities and organization. all remaining funding in FY2021 to complete the construction portion of the Capital Campaign. The Museum continues to raise funds for Endowment purposes.

Pt X, Line 2: The Museum is exempt from federal income taxes under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Under the Code, income from certain activities not related to the organization's tax-exempt purpose may be subject to taxation as unrelated business income. The organization had no income from unrelated business activities in the 2022-23 fiscal year and was, therefore, not required to file Federal Form 990-T (Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return). The organization believes that it has appropriate support for all tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the financial statements.

Pt III, Line 4: The Collection, which was acquired through purchases and contributions, is not recognized as an asset on the Statement of Financial Position. Purchases of Collection items are recorded as expenses in the year in which the items are acquired. Contributed Collection items are not reflected on the financial statements.
