

On Sunday, December 1, 2019, museum stores all over the globe will offer relaxed, inspired shopping inside your favorite museums and cultural institutions. Museum Store Sunday offers something for everyone in one-of-a kind stores showcasing broad assortments of highly curated, unique, mission-specific gifts. Shop knowing that you are supporting the mission, education and programming of your local museum and cultural institution!

Travel around the Asheville area on both Saturday, November 30 and Sunday, December 1, on a self-guided tour of local museum stores with this "Patron Passport." Enjoy discounts and various other special promotions and events exclusive to these two days.

At each location you visit on December 1st, enter to win the GRAND GIVEAWAY – a basket of unique gifts from all of the participating museums valued at more than $200!

To enter, tear off one entry form found at the bottom of this passport and place it in the Grand Giveaway jar at each location. One submission per person per museum only.

Please also get your passport stamped at the cash register of each cultural institution you visit. Anyone who receives four or more stamps, one of which must be from the WNC Nature Center, The North Carolina Arboretum or The Vance Birthplace, will receive one free String Doll from locally-owned business Kamibashi. Each passport holder is eligible to win one free string doll for the weekend while supplies last. Each store will have a total of 50 dolls to give away- your string doll will be given to you at the fourth store to stamp your passport.

The winner of the Grand Giveaway will be drawn on December 16, 2019 and will be notified by email and phone. No purchase is necessary to receive a free string doll or to enter the Grand Giveaway. For more information about Museum Store Sunday, visit: museumstoresunday.org
