

ASHEVILLE ART MUSEUM

2020 Gala Live Auction Trivia

Rules: Learn more about the artists in our Live Auction by attending the November 14 virtual event. During the program, record your responses to the following trivia questions and send your answers to Kristen Boddy at kboddy@ashevilleart.org by noon on Sunday, November 15. Everyone who gets all six answers correct will be entered to win a $50 gift card to Benjamin Walls Gallery wine bar (located at 38 Broadway St, Asheville and featuring an outdoor heated patio).

1. This artist's work emphasizes the beauty of the natural world, but also incorporates a strong moral narrative and an anthropomorphic view of the animals they depicted.
 - a. John James Audubon
 - b. Shane Fero
 - c. Benjamin Walls
2. Exploring the ideas of line and negative space, this artist was influenced by their teachers at Black Mountain College such as Josef Albers and Ilya Bolotowsky.
 - a. Lorna Blaine Halper
 - b. David Dubose
 - c. Michael Ethridge
3. Having studied both geology and art in college, this artist allows these two fields of study to inform their process of creating sculptural works of art.
 - a. Maurice Mullins
 - b. Michael Hofman
 - c. Henry Richardson
4. This artist has been active in Western North Carolina since 1979 and has a wide and diversified practice. During the COVID-19 pandemic, they began to experiment with a new medium: walnut ink.
 - a. Kevin Hogan
 - b. Mike Smith
 - c. GC Myers
5. Storytelling is a key feature of this artist's work and can be seen in their use of antique quilts, sculpture, ceramics, painting, printmaking, drawing, and broken treaties between the United States and Native American tribes.
 - a. Hannah Cole
 - b. Gina Adams
 - c. Billie Ruth Sudduth
6. Although this artist dedicated much of their career to printmaking with a particular interest in lithography, they also trained with the prominent Mexican painter and muralist, Diego Rivera early in their career.
 - a. Dan Namingha
 - b. Maltby Sykes
 - c. Ke Francis